本校五年級李祉澄同學於「SOW in Love' Competition」贏得傑出表現獎
並獲邀到香港電台接受訪問

In a remarkable display of creativity and compassion, Lee Tsz Ching, Safis of 5F has been awarded the Outstanding Award in the Upper Primary Division in the 'Sayings of Wisdom (SOW) in Love' letter writing competition. Organized by the Education Bureau, this competition invited students to craft meaningful letters and artwork that resonated with the themes of love and appreciation.

In her heartfelt letter to the elderly of Hong Kong, Safis expressed gratitude by highlighting their invaluable contributions to society. To complement her writing, she submitted a beautiful piece of artwork which vividly illustrated her appreciation for the elderly community.

To celebrate such excellence, her efforts were recognized on stage at the prestigious SOW Award Presentation Ceremony. Shortly afterwards, she was invited on the RTHK radio program 'In the Common Room,' where she shared insight about her creative process and the inspiration behind her work.

Her radio interview is now available to listen here. May her words encourage you to show love to those around us, especially, our elders. Congratulations to Safis Lee for her impressive achievement!

Without your contribution, there would be no today!

Dear respectable elders,

A family with an old person has a living treasure of gold. On behalf of the next generation, I would like to show our gratitude to you. Thank you for putting enormous efforts in creating a stable environment for us and educating us through your life.

Individually, you always share with young people past experiences. You walk the talk and show us what is right. You direct us to the right track and prevent us from going into the wrong direction. This is something money cannot buy.

As a member in the community, you work hard to contribute to the society and build up the fundamental structure of the city. You are also an open book for us to gain wise knowledge, and you demonstrate to us persistence and diligence. Without your contribution, there would be no today. Thank you for always standing by our side. We love you!

Yours sincerely,

The Next Generation
